

Rangi Ruru

Kaupapa for Learning:

Manaakitanga—Hospitality, kindness, generosity, support—the process, action and emotion involved in showing respect, generosity and care for others.

Whakamana—Empowerment of learning through uninterrupted opportunities, development of own interests and meaningful, attainable and appropriate experiences.

Ako—A teaching and learning relationship, where Kaiako (teachers) are also learning from the children's interests and knowledge.

Whanaungatanga—relationship, kinship, sense of family connection—a relationship through shared experiences and working together which provides people with a sense of belonging.

Tuakana Teina—Relationship between an older (Tuakana) person and a younger (Teina) person and is specific to teaching and learning in the Maori context.

Kotahitanga—Unity, togetherness, solidarity, collective action.

Kaitiakitanga—Guardianship—an appreciation, awareness, love and respect for our natural world.

Getting to know you...

Parent & whanau hopes for your learning and care

What are the hopes my family have for me as I grow and learn?

Family-what words will describe the adult you wish your child to be?

Tamaiti/Child's name:

Who is in my whanau/family

What helps me most when I am upset or hurt?

What are my favourite ways to spend time?

What helps me to settle to sleep?

What family experiences have I had? (Moving house/country/family/loss etc.)

What are the beliefs of our family? (Faith, cultural etc.)

What languages do we use at home?